

Chris Porter Named Information Technology Director at TwelveStone Health Partners

TwelveStone Health Partners, a premier provider of comprehensive chronic care medication services, has named Chris Porter as Director of Information Technology and Infrastructure.

“Chris has a tireless work ethic and has worn a lot of hats here at TwelveStone, but I think this one fits him best,” says Shane Reeves, chief executive officer for TwelveStone. “We rely on him for a wide variety of technical skills including maintaining a secure, compliant technology operation as well as his leadership in our expanding technical capabilities.”

Prior to joining TwelveStone Health Partners, Chris spent several years touring with a contemporary Christian band. While on tour he oversaw the band’s operations as well as serving as front-of-house engineer. He joined TwelveStone in 2012 when the company operated as the Reeves-Sain Family of Medical Services. He began as a Helpdesk manager and advanced into several roles, including Systems Administrator and Business Analyst, before being named to his current Director post.

The Texas native holds a Masters of Recording Arts degree from the Conservatory of Recording Arts and Sciences in Tempe, AZ, and a degree in Computer Science Engineering. In his new role he will report to chief operating officer, Cannon Loughry.

About TwelveStone Health Partners

TwelveStone Health Partners incorporates the objective of glorifying God into its mission by delivering a higher level of service to partners and patients. As an organization, TwelveStone supports the transition from acute to post-acute care environments and the transition from sickness to health. This is the third evolution in the company’s history, beginning in 1980 when Richard Reeves and Ronald Powell created a single retail pharmacy location then called Reeves Powell Saveway Drug Store. In 1994 Shane Reeves and Rick Sain launched Reeves-Sain and over 20 years grew the organization to include seven companies. In 2015 Reeves Sain Drug Store, Inc., a retail pharmacy, and its specialty pharmacy, EntrustRx were sold to Fred’s, Inc. In 2016 Shane Reeves launched TwelveStone Health Partners with the objective of continuing to pursue the highest professional, business and community goals set forth by its founders.
