“The addition of David to our board is a notable milestone for TwelveStone,” said Shane Reeves, chief executive officer. “His industry acumen and extensive first-hand knowledge in building a multi-site business will be invaluable as we expand across the southeast.”

“Although I’m not a pharmacy expert, I bring a lot of knowledge to the organization through my work with PE firms focused on healthcare and growth-oriented companies,” said David Bartholomew. “I was introduced to Shane through Claritas, and I am so impressed with the passion he has for the business. He loves the employees, the mission and the fact that they help people every day, his enthusiasm is just infectious. The infusion center business is a tremendous growth opportunity for a specialty pharmacy and I look forward to being part of the organization.”
